Case No. C10-573-JCC

11 Petitioner,

ORDER

12 v.

13 SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION
14 OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL

15 Respondent,

16 In re:

17 BOEING EMPLOYEES CREDIT UNION.

18 The Court, having reviewed Petitioner's Motion for Order Pursuant to Customer
19 Challenge Provisions of the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978, the Report and 20 Recommendation of United States Magistrate Judge Brian A. Tsuchida (Dkt. No. 11),
21 Petitioner's Statement (Dkt. No. 12), Respondent's Response (Dkt. No. 14), and the remaining
22 record, finds as follows.

23 In his Report and Recommendation, United States Magistrate Judge Brian A. Tsuchida
24 found that by failing to state her reasons for believing that the financial records sought by the 25 Government were not relevant to a legitimate law enforcement inquiry, Petitioner had failed to

1 comply with the threshold requirements of § 3410(a). (Dkt. No. 11 at 2.) In response, Petitioner
2 filed a short statement claiming that the records were being sought due “to a criminal
3 conviction.” She provides no factual basis for this conclusion. The Court finds that Petitioner
4 has still failed to comply with the threshold requirements of § 3410(a). Accordingly, the Court
5 does hereby ORDER:

- 6                     (1) The Court adopts the Report and Recommendation; and 7                     (2) Petitioner’s motion is DENIED and this case is DISMISSED without prejudice.

8                     The Clerk of Court is directed to CLOSE this case and to send copies of this Order to
9                     Petitioner.

10                   DATED this 16th day of April, 2010.
